

THE DAILY APPEAL.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

BEAR IN MIND the time for registering your names as voters expires on the 19th day of October. Candidates and others will do well to bring this notice to the attention of voters.

RESIGNATION FILED.—A. T. Hawley, Esq., filed his resignation, yesterday, as Notary Public of Douglas county with the Secretary of State.

REGISTERED.—We are able to report as many as 337 registered voters in Ormsby county. Eight days more in which to register the remaining three or four hundred.

MEETING OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—There will be a meeting of the Union State Central Committee on Monday afternoon next at 2 o'clock at the office of Aldrich and DeLong, in Virginia City.

COMMISSIONED.—Governor Blaisdel issued the following commissions yesterday: J. F. Hallock, County Commissioner for Lander county; Herman Doyle, Notary Public for Douglas county, to reside at Genoa; E. Fountain, Notary Public for Pahrump, Nye county.

MARK TWAIN'S LECTURE.—The California press praises Mark Twain's lecture as a very great success. It is stated that Mark intends lecturing in Virginia City so soon as he makes his regular tour of the California towns and cities, and when he comes to the sage brush, of course we shall see and hear him in Carson. Mark bids fair to rival Artemus Ward "or any other man."

NO ELECTION RETURNS—LINE DOWNS OF COURSE.—The news which we had a right to expect from the Eastern elections was not forthcoming yesterday, for, as a matter of course, when so important an opportunity for appearing the public appetite does happen, one of these peculiar accidents which seem to befall the press to the advancement of "private dispatches" is bound to take place. We who are content to be patient and bide our time may be assured that so soon as the speculators at either end of the line which is "down" have made their little profits off the news—whatever it may be—"we the people" shall be gratified—and not till then.

SEN. STEWART'S SPEECH LAST EVENING.—A large and intelligent audience of ladies and gentlemen were in attendance at the Pavilion, last evening, to hear Senator Stewart speak. Our space will not permit us to give even a synopsis of his remarks. We can only say that the Senator presented the issues in such a clear, forcible and eloquent manner, as to call forth frequent demonstrations of applause. He was listened to with strict attention, and we never heard him make a more able effort. At the conclusion of the speech he was greeted with three hearty cheers.

ELOQUENT WORDS BY THOMAS J. DURANT.—Addressing himself to the assembled multitude of tried loyalists who were in attendance upon the Southern Unionists' Convention, Mr. Thomas J. Durant, a distinguished citizen of New Orleans and a refugee from the mob of that city, began a most eloquent speech with the following sentences:

"A great statesman of Pennsylvania, who was it, assisted the works of politics and sedition, one whom Pennsylvania sent to the Continental Congress to aid the traitorous Jefferson in framing that declaration which has become a coat of arms for traitors, that illustrious statesman once said: 'We are liberty dwellers here in my country.' (Applause.) And now we are piling from cold and averted looks, not meeting with warm greetings, being from the assassin's knife which was poised at my throat, and that of every Union man, I come to the shores of the Delaware, and say with that illustrious statesman, here liberty dwellers are my country. (Loud applause.)"

THE PRESIDENTIAL ABUSE OF POWER.—Says an observant chronicler of passing events:

"Judge Story, in commenting on the President's power of appointment to office, seems to have had a prophetic glimpse of the present time and the Johnson era. 'Let me say,' he says, 'it shall even be worse by any Executive, exclusively to gratify his own ambition or to secure to himself a personal favor, or to gratify his own political measures, it will become one of the most dangerous and odious engines to destroy liberty and independence and public liberty.' There was a time when persons called themselves 'republicans' would have indignantly rebuked this remark; but the present race of conservatives is of a peculiar breed. It is now 'radicalism' to think that there should be any checks, not merely on the President's will, but on his willfulness; and a caprice of Johnson outweighs the soundest maxim of political science."

A YOUNG GRIZZLY KILLED.—On the San Lorenzo river lately, a young grizzly, weighing some eighty pounds, was killed by spring gun, loaded for his particular benefit and placed near a dead cow which his mother or some other relative had rendered defunct.

JOHNSON AND SEWARD'S RECEPTION IN CHICAGO.—The Chicago Tribune thus describes the manner with which three thousand citizens of that city greeted President Johnson and Secretary Seward upon the occasion of their "swinging around" to that part of King Andrew's dominions:

"The first carriage that drove up contained President Johnson and Secretary Seward. The two alighted, and arm in arm, proceeded up the front flight of stairs, which was crowded with people. Not a cheer greeted, not a symptom of pleasure was on any man's face. The large hall up stairs was filled with people—strangers and citizens. The crowd stood back to let them pass to their rooms, but not a voice honored them with a cheer. The guilty pair of apostates to freedom sneaked to their apartments."

The next carriage contained Secretary Welles and Bread-and-Butter Randall, who also proceeded up stairs through the crowd. But they, too, were greeted with the contemptuous silence of the people as these "sastraps and dependants" followed their master. A third carriage drove up to the entrance, from which alighted General Grant and Admiral Farragut. The moment they reached the sidewalk a great shout was raised, and a rush was made for the two Union heroes. As they went up the flight of stairs the cheering spread before and all around them, and in the hall above, 500 voices were added to the noisy greeting."

It is said that these evidences of coolness on the part of the Chicago people threw Johnson into a towering passion, so that he positively refused to attend the Monumental Concert at Crosby's Opera House.

S. T. 1860-X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS, which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent malarial and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.

They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calceola bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of imitations. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. stamp unimpaired over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel-plate label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or bulk is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters, from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.
